

Global Studies

Megan Balents

Submitted by Profs. Andrea B. Haupt, Francois Zdanowicz, and Steven Clark

Megan Balents has earned the distinction of Outstanding-Student-of-the-Year 2026 for Global and International Studies in recognition of her strong academic performance in our Global Studies courses. She has approached the discipline with diligence and intellectual engagement, consistently demonstrating careful study and thoughtful analyses of course materials. Megan has also continually made critical contributions to the course discussions. Congratulations, Megan!